Sound Off

A free combat veterans support group in Bemidji

Sound Off, a free combat veterans support group, is held from 5 to 7 p.m. the first and third Tuesday each month at the Sanford Bemidji Medical Center's Conference Room A, located immediately to the right through the hospital's main east entrance.

The group is open to men and women from all branches of service, regardless of conflict or disaster. It is facilitated by Billy Benso, United States Marine Corps (USMC) combat veteran, and Mike Sletta, behavioral health triage therapist at Sanford Bemidji.

The group provides members with a safe and confidential place to openly discuss personal issues and how their combat experience impacts their daily life.

"Post-traumatic stress disorder, or PTSD, is a condition many veterans struggle with after traumatic experiences such as combat or disaster," said Sletta. "What we want our vets to know is that it's real, you are not alone, and help is out there with groups like ours."

The support group can help veterans learn that:

- Combat did change them
- No matter what they do, they can't change what they've experienced
- Drugs, alcohol, isolation and denial don't work as coping behaviors
- With support of other combat vets, they can learn to live with PTSD

Any veteran interested in attending can simply show up at the scheduled meeting time or call (218) 333-5165 to learn more.

North Central Minnesota Chapter # 7

The warm weather is just around the corner! Some of the days in March that teased us with spring warmth were a real energy boost for me. With April comes the realization that we are three months out from taking ownership of our new building. I'm ready to move forward with the rest of my fellow veterans in every aspect of our activities, and I am very excited for us for our new building and property on west 15th street. I am hearing your enthusiasm for our new "digs" as well, and that makes me very glad.

We found the DAV bins full of donations this winter each time we pulled up to empty them. The Tuesday morning group keeps very busy organizing and re-bagging the items. It's a dedicated group of volunteers and they work together until the job is done.

I hope the Lenten season and Easter holiday filled you and your families with contemplations of the good things in life that we are blessed with. As we enter the spring and summer months working on our new endeavors, I'll be there with you!!!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Are we Missing Something?

Have you ever had to explain something to a person you hoped were paying attention to what you were telling them, then when you were finished they missed the whole point? Yet it was so obvious it was a simple explanation, you wonder how they could not understand? Sometime a thing can be so plain and simple yet so many fail to comprehend, even those who supposedly should be the ones who have the knowledge to comprehend the subject presented. Thus it seems to be with the Bible where God has laid out the plan of salvation in a plain and simple way. Also why is it that prophecy has so many twisted explanations by men who should be scholars of the Word of God? Certainly they can't all be right, but one says this and another that. Who is right? No wonder there is so much confusion of the Word of God in the World today. This certainly causes people to become discouraged and give up, exactly the way Satan orchestrated it to be. No wonder so many young people are leaving the church today or not even getting involved, because of confusion being presented as truth without a solid foundation of the Word of God. The Bible tells us this "Study to show yourself approved of God, a workman who need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth". [2nd Timothy 2:15]. You see if people would study they would find that the Bible is its own interpreter. But no, they go here and there for answers and then it becomes man's ideas and speculation instead of Gods truth. And then when the truth is presented to them they express doubt. Here is a wise saying. "Those who allow prejudice to bar the mind against the reception of truth cannot receive divine enlightenment. Yet, when a view of Scripture is presented many do not ask, is it true, in harmony with Gods word? but, by whom is it advocated? and unless it comes through the very channel that pleases them, they do not accept it. so thoroughly satisfied are they with their own ideas that they will not examine the Scripture evidence with a desire to learn, but refuse to be interested because of their prejudices". [Taken from Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, pp. 105,106]. We expect all truth to come through men of great stature in learning, yet God will and does choose the lowly, the meek and the humble to bring forth His truth. Case in point. When the wise men of the East came to Jerusalem they expected all the city be rejoicing of the coming Messiah, yet the King the scholars and the priests had no clue to what had just happened, why? because they failed to study and put aside their preconceived ideas of when, where and how Jesus would come., These are the very ones who should have known better and prepared the people for this great event. But it was revealed to a bunch of shepherds on a hillside outside of Bethlehem. Here again is Wisdom. "The Bible must not be interpreted to suit the ideas of men however long they may have held these ideas to be true. We are not to accept the opinions of commentators as the voice of God; they were erring mortals like ourselves. God has given reasoning powers to us as well as to them. We should make the Bible its own expositor. [Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, pp. 105,106]. Soon now Christ will come in the clouds of glory and as it is written "Every eye shall see Him". So then i ask, are you ready, do you know how He is coming, will there be a false coming first, what must i do to prepare for this Earth shattering event? So has this been preached to you, is it first and foremost in the preaching you are receiving? or are you being lulled into thinking that all is well and His coming is a long way off? " That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that hear not the Law of the Lord: Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits".[ Isaiah 30:9,10]. "Come now let us reason together, saith the lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the Land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it". [Isaiah 1:18-20]. So then are we missing something? will His second coming be misinterpreted just as His first? My friends Jesus is calling to every heart right now, that he loves us and wants to save us. Study his Word and surrender all to Him, listen to the truth because what you have been taught and believe may be deceiving you, after all that's Satan's plan.
